Liberty." Inauguration day was brilliant with sunshine and very warm. Crowds gathered in front of the palace in the early forenoon. All the ships in the harbor, including the American battle-ships, put on gala attire. This day marks the anniversary of the birth of Jose Marti, called the "Apostle of Cuban Liberty."

The Ceremonies.

The ceremonies.

The ceremonies began at 9 o'clock in the morning with the placing of a wreath on the memorial tablet in the house where he was born. At 11 o'clock Alfredo Zayas was inducted into office as vice president of the republic in the senate chamber, this ceremony being brief and simple. The ceremony of the inauguration of the president at the palace also was exceedingly brief. When Governor Magoon and the president-elect arrived at the latter's residence the reception hall the latter's residence the reception has the latters residence the reception and of the palace was crowded to its full capacity with brilliantly uniformed diplomatic representatives and army officers, black gowned justices of the supreme court and conventionally attired civilians. Noting the danger of trouble between Turkey and Bulgaria, the powers are again resorting to negotiation to bring shout joint pressure in favor of a peaceful settlement.

Sounding the Powers.

It is reported that Sir Edward Groy, the British foreign secretary, has sounded the powers on this subject and a St. Petersburg despatch announces semi-officially that Russia has already addressed a circular despatch to all the signatories of the Berlin treaty. In this circular Russia proposes to make common representations to both Sofia and Constantinople against any change being made in the frontier line which would endanger European peace and urging both governments to refrain from a military movement.

Turkey Advised to Accept $20,000,000 Indemnity.

while the Turks deny having occupied strategical positions on the Bulgarian Trontier they are constantly increasing their forces where they have found weakness.

According to a Sofia despatch, Great Britain has advised Turkey to accept an indemnity of $20,000,000 and Bulgaria is inclined to pay this sum, provided Turkey abandons her claim for rectification of the frontier. Negotiations between Austria-Hungary and Turkey are still drapping owing to the fact that the Turkish government has governors of nine southern states will aid in disposing of his new dish.

THE "SALOME" DANCE BY MISS MARY GARDEN. Those Who Expected to Witness the Height of Realism Were Disappointed.

New York, Jan. 28.—The much her-aided production of Richard Strauss' "Salome," which had been anticipated as the great event of the musical sea-son, was given at the Manhatian opera-house tonight in the presence of a brilliant audience which had paid double prices for the privilege of hearing it. nearing it.

The music drams, which is written The music drams, which is written on a theme furnished by Oscar Wilde's poem, had a previous presentation in New York two years ago at the Metropoilian opera house, but the "Dance of the Seven Veils," which forms one of the chief features of the opera, aroused such criticism that after a single performance the work was withdrawn from the Metropoilian repertoire and never repeated.

New York, Jan. 28.—Uncertainty as to what action would be taken on the recent suggestion made by District Attorney Jerome in the case of the government's suit against the New York World for libel, that the federal authorities suspend their activities and permit him to proceed in their stead, was in a measure removed today by the signing of an affidavit by Douglas Robinson, brother-in-law of the presi-

Although no authoritative announcement to this effect was made, it is be Heved that Mr. Robinson's signing of the affidavit in question means that he has accepted Mr. Jerome's proposal to appear as a complaining witness against the World and that the grand jury of the county of New York is pre-paring to take the matter in hand. Mr. Robinson was closeted with the district attorney for nearly an hour today, but neither would discuss what the subject of their long talk had been.
